X. Discussion and Possible Action on the Revised Draft Golf Facility Feasibility Study Grant

Mr. McNeill stated amended copies of the preliminary planning grant of the golf proposal were sent to the task force for review two months prior to this meeting. Minor recommendations were sent by Culver City Parks Department and positive feedback was conveyed from the County of Los Angeles and Environment Now. The purpose of the golf feasibility study is to establish a neutral fiscal agent to act as administrator in the process of hiring consultants. Mr. McNeill would like $100,000 from Prop 40 funds be made available for a team of golf development experts. He stated it is possible more recommendations are forthcoming from Culver City, yet nothing has been received in writing. Member Nichols made a motion, to be seconded, that $100,000 be appropriated to Environment Now for the purpose of managing the feasibility study. Concerns from some board members were made regarding Environment Now as agent for the RFP reviews and possibly being a consultant. The Chair asked for a vote to encumber funds in the amount of $100,000 to be utilized for the Golf Feasibility Study. All ayes, motion carried.

Councilmember Gary Silbiger, Culver City, stated he was not aware of any public comments of a golf course in Culver City or anywhere else, and their city council has not had any public discussions, nor taken any votes on it. He added he hasn't seen any proposals given to their subcommittees or from their subcommittees to the Baldwin Hills Conservancy. He stated that any comments from their subcommittee would only be informal and hopefully, in the near future, Culver City will have a public discussion/public comment period taken by their city council on the golf study.

Steve White, their new Chief Ranger for the district, has been working with Captain Hank Davies, Culver City Police Department, to come up with a MOU to clarify both their roles in public safety response. Mr. Schafer thanked Member Mary Ann Greene for helping set up the meeting on the 24th with the rangers and residents in the area of the park, that was very productive and opened up dialogue.

Frank Quiambao, President West Los Angeles College (WLA) stated that their draft EIR proposal received lots of comments, particularly, about the possibility of traffic congestion and noise. President Quiambao commented that WLA looked at dozens of possibilities and came up with three possible roads; one which goes through Duquesne and a newly determined dog park (they made a presentation to Culver City's City Council that they would not put the road through the dog park) and two that goes through the Conservancy.
